The Strange Career of Jim Crow Archives: Race, Space, and Archives in the Mid-20th Century American South

Alex H. Poole

Agency, Power, and Space

"Archives have the power to privilege and to marginalize. They can be a tool of hegemony; they can be a tool of resistance." -Joan Schwartz and Terry Cook (2002)

"We must be insistently aware of how space can be made to hide consequences from us, how relations of power and discipline are inscribed into the apparently innocent spatiality of social life, how human geographies become filled with politics and ideology." -Edward Soja (1989)

Outreach and Access

"Effective democratization can always be measured by this essential criterion: the participation in and the access to the archive, its constitution, and its interpretation." -Jacques Derrida (1996)

Accountability, Social Responsibility, and Diversity

"[T]he archivist, in subtle ways, tends to perpetuate the political and economic status quo simply by going about his ordinary business." -Howard Zinn (1977)

Writing History

"[I]t is impossible to write history on the basis of documentary evidence that has been destroyed or that was never collected." -Pat Galloway (2006)
